Chairman Langford recognized Commissioner Sullivan who moved to amend, seconded by Commissioner Mansfield, to add Twin Eagles subdivision back to District 9.

Chairman Langford ruled the amendment out of order because there would have to be consultation with CTAS representative Wesley Robertson to see if possible and advised to refer or defer back to the Redistricting Committee.

RECESS

Chairman Langford called for a five minute recess at 8:15 p.m. to consult with Law Director Leah Dennen to determine a solution. The meeting reconvened at 8:30 p.m.

Chairman Langford informed the Commission that Ms. Dennen spoke to Wesley Robertson with CTAS during recess and he said there should be room within the deviations to move the Twin Eagles subdivision back to District 9.

Chairman Langford stated that he erred in ruling Commissioner Sullivan's amendment out of order. He asked Commissioner Moe Taylor if he was willing to withdraw his motion to defer, Commissioner Moe Taylor agreed pending Mr. Robertson's check of census blocks or a special called meeting be called if not allowed because of final deviation percentages.

Chairman Langford recognized Commissioner Sullivan who brought his amendment to move Twin Eagles subdivision back to District 9 with the addition of Mr. Robertson's confirmation of final deviation percentages back to the floor, and the commissioner seconding the motion agreed to accept the change.
